To whom it may concern,

February 7, 2010

I have had the pleasure of knowing Lee Fitzgerald for the past 5 years, both on a professional as well as a personal level. Ever since I first met her, one of her great assets is the willingness she has to help others no matter what it requires. She has helped me immensely as a working professional in my career in the field of addictions.

I have also had the experience of utilizing her services as an interventionist. My experience with her has shown me that she has the ability to work well with young women in particular, but is not limited to that population. She has a tremendous amount of compassion for the addict and their families to find recovery. This character quality in Lee is what I find most attractive about her.

I have the utmost respect for Lee and would highly recommend her for her vast array of experience in the field of addictions. She is one of the hardest working individuals I have ever met, and she will do whatever it takes to get the job done with a great attitude and a generous heart.

Please feel free to contact me should you require anything further.
